

Dietmar Paetzold - Photography, Object, Installation

born 1950 in Burscheid, Germany
lives and works in Cologne and Dortmund
Member of VG Bild-Kunst
Member of Kunstverein 68erl e.V.
Exhibitions since 1970
<https://dietmarpaetzold.jimdofree.com/>

We are currently experiencing extreme climatic changes on earth, a consequence of the progressive global destruction of the environment. Tropical forests, which are essential for survival, are still being cut down for economic reasons and destroyed by slash and burn. The photographic works 'Lost Trees 1 and 2' show what a world will look like if we continue to exploit the earth so ruthlessly. A world without trees will also be a world without human beings.

Lost Trees 1
Photograph 2013

Lost Trees 2
Photograph 2013